Product Description

Here's a delicious new spin on conventional deli chicken. We start with whole jumbo chicken breasts which are lightly rubbed with sugar, sea salt and a proprietary blend of spices and seasonings. Natural caramelization during oven roasting brings out the full, rich flavor and color of the chicken. After roasting, our deep-fried version is kettle fried in a peanut-oil blend for chicken that is golden brown on the outside and delectably tender and juicy inside. There's nothing on the market like our all-natural, oven-roasted and deep-fried chicken breasts.
